Its speech was able, dignified, manly and conrecens. It was an appeal to the judgment and good seuse of the voters. There was no demagoguery In it, and it was altogether such a speech as was needed at this place—worthy the high character of the speaker, and the noble cause he advocates. He exposed the heresy of Squatter Sovercizity, and made an ineffectual effort to induce W. M. Bullock to defend Mr. Bell's position on that question. He said he had tried to get Mr. Bullock to take position in regard to it both at Shelbyville and Simpsonville. both at Sheibyville and Simpsonville.

Mr. Bullock, who was present to represent the Bell wing of the Opposition party, made a speech, in which he talked about everything but platform and looked to secession. He was a description and looked to secession. He was a delegate in that Convention, having been substituted for Col. Thomas J. Mesrs, Editors, it is not claiming too much to say, you may expect from this portion of Kemucy a united Democracy for Breckinridge.

All oblited parties seemed pleased with Breckinridge, and it is my belief, if the chance for Bell to snot bright in there will be a general tash to Breckinridge from the Opposition South.
